

BTE – Prague, Czech Republic

Program Model

Target Population: 30 Year 2 students from 3 schools enrolled in school year 2011/12; in the two subsequent years of the program, the site will continue to target the original cohort, assuming they meet the basic requirements of the program.

Inputs 	Activities	Short-term Outcomes	End-of-grant Outcomes	Long-term Outcomes
Johnson & Johnson
Junior Achievement
Charles University			90% demonstrate progress in at least 5 soft skills, particularly in connection to	Increase in the number of
Ministry of Education		Students gain knowledge in key soft skills	healthcare and patient care	students whom successful enroll in higher education
Czech Nursing Association	International Health Care Exposure	Students have proactive attitude to their own	90% of students articulate a	Increase in the number o students pursuing healthcare/STEM careers
Ministry of Healthcare	Soft Skills Workshops	education	career and/or educational plan	Ticalarca C.O. TENI Garcero
VOŠZ a SZŠ 5.května	Education / Career Plan	Students possess self- confidence
SVZŠ a VOŠZ Kladno		Students are motivated to	80% intend to pursue a health care career
ZŠ a VOZŠ Mladá Boleslav		pursue further education and future career in healthcare, based on their	 	Secondary Outcomes Key aspects of the progra
AED		level of expertise.		are added into medical sch
ŠE - Independent Evaluator				