

BTE – Puerto Rico Program Model

Target Population: 50 students (25 per school) enrolled in Grade 10 in School Year 2014-2015 at Petra Corretjer High School (Manatí) and Dr. Conchita Cuevas High School (Gurabo).

Inputs	Program Activities	Short Term Outcomes		End-of-grant Outcomes Year 3 Outcomes	Long-term Outcomes
		Year 1 Outcomes	Year 2 Outcomes
Johnson & Johnson Corporate	Visits to Janssen sites	100% BTE students are committed to and actively participate in the BTE program	100% of students continue in the BTE program.	100% of BTE seniors graduate from High School	Increase in the number of youth attending higher education.
Janssen	Health Care Visits		100% of BTE students are promoted to the next grade level			100% of BTE students improve Math/Science Overall grades by at least 10% as compared to baseline grades
Johnson & Johnson	Individual and small groups mentoring	100% BTE students are committed to education and learning	50% of BTE students improve Math/Science / Overall grades by at least 5% as compared to baseline grades	100% of BTE students take the college admission examination
ASPIRA	Academic Tutoring in (Math., Science and English)		80% BTE students obtain at least proficiency level in their PPAA scores for Science & Math .			100% of BTE students apply to at least one post secondary institution
University of Puerto Rico	College Prep Activities	100% BTE students understand the importance of higher education	50% of BTE students take the college admission exam	90% of BTE graduates are accepted to a post secondary institution		Increase in the number of youth pursuing careers in the health or science sectors
Department of Education	BTE parents orientation at Janssen (Gurabo and Manatí)		100% of BTE students are knowledgeable of higher education programs
Petra Corretjer High School	Job shadowing	100% of students elect to participate in Social Responsibility Experiences	100% BTE students are knowledgeable of various health and science careers	50% BTE students elect to Mentor youth in the community and/or participate in other community service activities beyond the required community service
Dr. Conchita Cuevas High School	J&J Job Fair at U.P.R.(RUM) and visit to Rio Piedras Campus		100% BTE students understand the importance of "giving" back to their community
Independent Evaluator	Resume writing and Interview Workshop at J&J Guaynabo	Workshops on self esteem, family relations leadership development and community service experience)
Fhi 360	Orientation on Health Related Careers
	Advise in careers selection by: Inventories, WEB based sources for career exploration and others)
	Workshops on self esteem, family relations leadership development and community service experience)					