BTE-North Plainfield, New Jersey Bridge to Employment

Program Model

Johnson Johnson

Target Population: 45 Sophomore students attending North Plainfield High School in School Year 2013-2014.

Inputs	Activities	Short-term Outcomes	End-of-grant Outcomes	Long-term Outcomes
Johnson & Johnson IT	Academic Tutoring	Students will feel more confident about their academic abilities	95% of students will graduate With at least 3 Concurrent Enrollment Credits
Johnson & Johnson Corporate	Leadership Training	Students will be more knowledgeable of science/ Health careers & how learning	100% of students will exhibit core Work readiness skills.	[]
Volunteers from additional J&J Local Operating Companies, including: Ethicon, Janssen		applies to the world of work Students will become more knowledgeable about Team work and effective communication	100% of BTE students will graduate from high school	Increase in the number of students enrolling in higher education.
	Applied Learning Project
North Plainfield High School	Community Service		articulate clear education and career goals	Increase in the number of
RVCC	College / University Tours	Students will believe that they can and should go to college100% of BTE students will apply to post-secondary education	students pursuing healthcare/STEM degrees, certificates
Rutgers University (Evaluation)	PSAT Power Weekend	Students will be more aware of higher education and career opportunities Students will recognize the importance of community responsibility	60% of participants will express an interest in STEM/Healthcare majors upon applying to higher education.	or careers.
FHI 360 (Technical Assistance)	SAT Prep Course
	Career Coaching		100% of BTE students will be accepted by an institution of higher education or training program.
	Career Exploration Field Trips	Students will understand the importance of leaderships skills and will be able to develop their leadership skills
	Job Shadowing		100% of BTE students will "give back" to their community Through Community Service Projects.	Secondary Outcomes
				Lasting school impacts, including an overall increase in graduation and college Acceptance rate for NPH
	Career Planning			Increased collaboration among business and education.
	L	I		Benefits to J&J employees.