

Bridge to Employment
East London
Sparkling Interest in

STEM2D

Science

Physical Science experiments to promote the love of Science in the laboratory.

Female learners went to the Transnet Port Authority for Take a girl Child to work day. Learners were encouraged to pursue Science and Maritime studies.

BTE learners visited the East London Industrial Development Zone Science and Technology Park

Science and Technology

Engineering Department Motivators discussing their own careers and allowing the students to interact and participate in practical examples and discussions.

Engineering

Manufacturing and Design

Discussion with our Automation Engineer on how our products are made.

Exposing the students To different STEM2D Careers

Career EXPO at Johnson & Johnson

